

Policies and Procedures for Circus Juventas' Work Study Program

General Work Study Expectations:

Work Study hours are considered a job in which the "paycheck" is a reduced rate for the classes taken at CJ. The amount of work study hours received will be determined by the Executive Director and Work Study Coordinator once the application has been submitted. In order to qualify for Work Study, students must be at least 14 years old, and taking Intermediate/Advanced level classes. The ability to handle a regular weekly schedule and potential to become a student coach is also taken into consideration when reviewing applications.

Behavior during the Work Study hours should reflect this professional agreement, and you are expected to act as an ambassador for CJ as you work through appropriate behavior, language, and dress (see: "Professional Attire"). A pleasant attitude and willingness to cooperate with CJ staff and fellow students is important as a Work Study student.

Expectations for Cleaning Students:

Work Study students assigned to cleaning will be given specific tasks to complete during their scheduled one hour time slot. These tasks are expected to be completed thoroughly and carefully. Should tasks be completed haphazardly and without care, the student will be expected to redo their work or they will not be given credit towards their weekly Work Study hours (see: "Check in/out Procedures").

Expectations for Student Coaches:

Student coaches are expected to remain active and engaged for the full hour of their assigned coaching session. They are expected to communicate thoroughly with lead coaches and meet expectations set by their assigned coaches. Student coaches are expected to use good judgment as it relates to the health and safety of CJ students and be sensitive to the physical and emotional limits of each individual student (avoid excess conditioning, be sensitive to over-stretching, be mindful of tone of voice when giving feedback, stay focused on YOUR class and not watching other acts perform, etc.)

Assigned Hours and Applying Credits:

Each student is assigned a specific number of hours they may complete over the course of the session. Please note: If students choose to put in time at Circus above and beyond the hours they've been granted, these hours are considered voluntary and should not be recorded for Work Study credit. Student coaches may be asked to sub coach a class/workshop outside of their regularly scheduled hours. Should this happen, they will be compensated in the form of a credit to their CJ account ($8.50 per hour taught). Cleaning students should never end a session in a surplus of hours. Hours worked up until the next registration period are applied to the NEXT session of the year. (For example: the first half of Fall session is applied to the Winter bill, then the rest of Fall and the first half of Winter are applied to the Spring session, etc. Please contact the Work Study Coordinator if you need more clarification.)

Spring Show:

FOR CLEANING STUDENTS: The Spring Show relies heavily on volunteers before, during and after the performance weekends. If a cleaning student is in need of make-up hours (from the previous session) certain volunteer tasks may be used as make up hours so long as arrangements are made prior to the performance. Otherwise, any hours put into volunteering for the show may not be clocked for Work Study credit.

FOR STUDENT COACHES: It is NOT mandatory for student coaches to help with their assigned class during the run of the Spring Show; once the spring session is over, their official commitment to the class ends as well. Should a student be asked to assist with spotting/rigging for the performances, s/he should accept only with the understanding that they will not be granted Work Study credit for the hours worked. Attending their assigned class' extra practice(s) is also voluntary and their specific need should be worked out between the student and their lead coach.

Work Calls/Building Rentals:

All Work Study students (coaches and cleaners) are required to attend mandatory load-ins and strikes for all events held at CJ. These dates vary through the year and CJ Staff will notify you promptly of these dates and times as they arise. Work calls are held for all building rentals throughout the year, preparing the arena for our Spring/Summer show performances and for our annual Gala, as well as additional calls as needed. Failure to attend a mandatory work call could result in the student having to make up double the hours of the missed work call.

Sign In/Out Procedure:

Students must sign in at the front desk for every shift. Signing in is the ONLY way to guarantee that hour(s) will be documented and credited to the student's account. The front desk employees will NOT assume that a student has arrived for a shift and will NOT track them down to have them sign in. They MUST sign in and out to be assigned credit for Work Study.

Professional Attire:

Work Study students are expected to be professional at all times; this is reflected in both behavior and attire. To teach or assist a class wearing jeans, cut-offs, (either pants or shirts), or "street-clothing" is not appropriate. Additionally, Work Study students cleaning or completing an assignment not related to teaching should dress appropriately for a professional workplace and the job tasks they could be assigned.

What is appropriate clothing?

FOR CLEANING STUDENTS: Cleaning Work Study students must either be wearing a CJ shirt or appropriate work clothes. Pants and footwear need to be appropriate for the jobs you could be assigned. Some tasks may be assigned for outside work as well, so please come dressed and prepared for any type of weather.

FOR STUDNET COACHES: Student coaches must wear a Circus Juventas shirt with a machine CJ logo (student coach shirt or silk screened shirt.) This is non-negotiable. If a student coach arrives for a Work Study shift without a CJ shirt, s/he will be expected to purchase one from the front desk. Student coaches are provided their first shirt. Any additional student coaching shirts will need to be purchased for $10 each. Pants and footwear will also need to be appropriate for the class you are teaching (jeans, cut off shorts, shirts that show midriff, and flip flops are not appropriate for coaching!)

Policy of "calling in sick"/Missing Assigned Hours:

An excused absence is defined as a prearranged and approved absence wherein CJ Staff is notified before the scheduled shift begins that the student will be unable to make their shift. The student should not consider themselves excused until they get confirmation from a CJ Staff person that their request/notification has been received. Student coaches should inform the Work Study Coordinator of absences and be advised on what to do to find a sub, as all subs must be approved in advance by the Work Study Coordinator. It is not acceptable to not show up for an assigned shift. Should this happen, the student's absence will be considered unexcused and additional consequences may be needed, like the hour may not be eligible for makeup. Reduced hours or termination from the program may result from consistently missed shifts.

As with most things, the more notice, the better. In situations other than sickness or emergency (vacation, school concerts, trips, etc.) notification should be given as soon as the conflict arises. This is the best way to assure that an absence is recorded as excused and to provide sufficient time to arrange for substitute coaching.

Make-up Hours For Cleaning Students:

Making up an excused shift is possible, but must be arranged in advance with the Work Study Coordinator. Once a determined shift is approved, the student must still sign in when they arrive to receive credit.

Make-up Hours For Student Coaches:

Student Coaches may make-up missed coaching shifts by subbing for other coaches. Students are notified of open shifts as they arise and can sub for those classes to receive credit. The Work Study Coordinator has final approval over all substitutions. Students should not sub for a class that conflicts with a current coaching hour or CJ class. Once a determined shift is approved, the student must still sign in when they arrive to receive credit.
