

Insider Guide to Spring Show Tickets

Everything you need to know about ticket sales

Ways to Purchase & First Day of Ticket Sales

Box office hours vary year to year so make sure to check your emails and the website to the most up-to-date hours. In the past couple years due to the high volume of in person sales we experience, CJ's box office has been WALK-UP SALES ONLY the first day tickets go on sale. All phone orders that day go through our ticketing company, Ticketworks. Tickets are also available online 24 hours. Additional convenience fees are associated with online and phone orders. There are no additional fees for in person orders.

If you plan to come in person on the first day, please prepare accordingly as we do anticipate a line (and a potential couple hour wait.)

Tips & Tricks

Remember to purchase a ticket for your performer! If you plan to have your performer join you to watch the rest of the show (only applicable to Toddler/Circus Kinders and 1st half performers), then they will need a ticket to enter the arena and watch as a spectator.

Traditionally, matinees tend to sell out first. So if that is the only show you can attend, we recommend purchasing tickets sooner rather than later.

We know many families wait to purchase tickets when they arrive for their class during the week. If you have a class later in the week, availability could be limited by then. So, again, if you have a specific show you are planning to attend, you may want to consider coming in earlier in the week, calling Ticketworks or going online.

Arena Placements

Circus Juventas provides arena placements of performers locations within the arena (where applicable). Each arena placement book is organized by show team color & act. This information is only available in person at the front desk.

Please keep in mind that the arena placements diagrams are not to scale and are supposed to represent a general layout of the arena. Not all acts are given a specific arena placements as some have students moving throughout the arena.
