SPUN GOLD SALAD

Mixed greens, Roma tomatoes, cucumbers and crispy fried onions with a housemade vinaigrette - VG NF

A deal's a deal, after all! All that straw spun into gold, and I saved her from getting her head chopped off too.

A MEAL FIT FOR A PRINCE

Beef medallions in a cherry demi with rich bleu cheese butter accompanied by fairy-tended baby potatoes, fresh vegetables and edamame, roasted for you, over their vehement demands we leave the garden - GF NF

She was no beauty, believe me. Such an ugly baby, and those good-for-nothing fairies sucking up to the King and Queen, laying on the flattery as thick as butter.

JACK'S VEGAN BEAN CASSOULET

Magic beans, tempeh, forest mushrooms and root vegetables - what you serve your fancy guests when you sell your only cow for beans! - VG GF NF

Well, I know she was a skinny, milk-less cow, but beans? Beans!?!? That no-good child, now what will we eat?

FAIRY TALE BOOK PAGES

Petite florless chocolate cake with salted caramel sauce & whipped cream - V GF NF

*Oh, so you don't believe in fairy tales?
You won't mind if I rip them up then?*
