(Saint Paul, MN) If you are looking for that good-old fashioned winter with SNOW, book your tickets for "Blizzard," the Circus Juventas holiday show. The award-winning youth performing arts circus school promises stunning acrobatics and high-flying trapeze acts…all under a steady shower of snow inside the big top. Performances run weekends Dec. 6 through 15 under the big top, 1270 Montreal Avenue, St. Paul, MN. Tickets go on sale 10 a.m. November 11. Mark your calendar as seats are limited and shows typically sell out. Tickets are $25 for children, $35 for adults. Follow the ticket link at https://circusjuventas.org/holiday-show-2024/ or by calling 651-309-8106.

"We know people look for those holiday traditions that deliver uplifting entertainment," said Circus Juventas Executive Director Rob Dawson. "Our snow-making machines are primed and ready to bring the magic of that first heavy snowfall. We also kept our ticket prices the same this season to make it an affordable family event, and we are continuing our extremely popular matinees on the weekends, at 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. With a 70-minute show, it still leaves time to go out for a festive dinner after the leaving the big top."

Blizzard showcases nonstop action. Imagine: the Grinch on Mount Crumpet and the Whos of Whoville in a wildly rambunctious Teeterboard act, ethereal candy cane aerialists, a beautiful aerial 'Nutcracker' Pas de Deux, and a triple trapeze act with 'Nightmare Before Christmas' Jack Skellington! It all begins as three mischievous elves in the North Pole accidentally crack open The BIG Book of Holiday Stories and release Christmas characters who make their grand entrances in this fast-paced, hour-long show.

"Blizzard promises audiences a cozy, snow-filled holiday experience, regardless of the weather outside," shares Rachel Butler-Norris, artistic director of Circus Juventas. "Our students will be aiming straight for your hearts as they take you on a magical, whimsical ride to the North Pole. Paired with breath-taking talent, and festive costumes, you will be smiling all the way home."
